

DEALING WITH INSIDE & OUTSIDE CORNERS

When dealing with inside or outside corners its best to start your installation at the outside or inside corner and work your way out from the corners. This method will allow you to align your panels easier. Once the corner pieces are secured you will find it easier to install the other joining panels.

